When the appeal came for consideration, the learned counsel appearing for the appellant submits that the Village Officer had issued a certificate stating that the entire amount due under the award passed in M.V.(O.P.)No.720/1988 was deposited by the second respondent in this appeal. If the amount had been deposited, there is no need to proceed with the attachment and sale of the property. So, the appeal has become infructuous.

In the result, the appeal is closed as infructuous.
